

242BC

1912 Dates J-BK

When the Macedonian Garrison (242BC) was driven from Corinth the efforts of the League were directed against Macedon

242B c

- Rome
- Two Praetors were appointed.
- ① URBAN PRAETOR (Praetor Urbanus), deciding cases to which citizens were parties.
 - ② The Peregrine Praetor (Praetor Peregrinus) for cases between foreigners.
- The urban praetor exercised functions of consuls in their absence and also of the Peregrine Praetor.

142BC

Practor Peregrinus created, raising practors to 2.

242BC

Consuls:

C. Laetanius Catulus

Aulus Postumius Albinus

New Roman Fleet Formed

242BC

Naval defeat of Hanno at Aegutian Islands

CAIUS LUTATIUS CATULUS won this victory.

242BC

Agis IV attempts reforms ~~at~~
in Sparta

242BC

A second praetor - the praetor peregrinus - was created to deal with matters relating to foreign nationals and Italians rather than Rome.

As Rome acquired her various provinces, more praetors were created to govern them.

242B c

naval depot of Hanno
at Aegatian Islands.

242 B.C.

India: "Pillar" edicts Asoka.

242BC

Decisive naval victory at the AEGATAE
Islands, off the west coast of Sicily;
the Roman commander was the consul
LUTATIUS CATULUS

A second praetor (first being praetor urbanus) the Praetor peregrinus was created to deal with matters relating to foreign nationals and Italia rather than Rome.

As Rome acquired her various provinces, more praetors were created to govern them.